

Friday, July 22, 2005

As a licensed amateur radio operator, I want to let the Commission know that I am for the proposed change to remove Morse code as a licensing requirement for the amateur radio service.

I am excited about this change, and I know that I will certainly be interested in upgrading my license class when these rule changes go into effect.

This is exactly the sort of change that amateur radio needs.

Thank you!

Jonathan Weirmeir, KC8RYW